

PENRHYN HALEN BODORGAN, LL62 5LS

Penrhyn Halen is a spacious farmhouse, situated in a peaceful location, overlooking rural farmland with the sea beyond. The beautiful long beach at Aberffraw and the wonderful sand dunes are a five minute drive away. Just a little further is Llyn Coron, a popular trout lake. The rest of Anglesey's attractions and the mountains of Snowdonia are all within easy travelling from this house.

This house is ideal for family gatherings or house parties, and has been the venue of many birthday parties and reunions. Two sitting rooms, one with an open fire and comfy seating to relax in after a busy day out, and one smaller sitting room often used by younger people, a family games room with pool table and large utility room. There is also a downstairs cloakroom and a lovely welcoming kitchen with a range type electric cooker, dishwasher, microwave, fridge, deep freeze and washing machine. The farmhouse table comfortably seats 14 people. French windows open on to the garden. There are seven bedrooms, three double rooms and four twin rooms all having lovely open rural views. Four of the bedrooms have ensuite bathrooms and there is a further bathroom with bath and shower over, wash hand basin and loo. The house is surrounded by an enclosed spacious garden together with plenty of parking.

This is a great welcoming house, and a must for family gatherings!
